

10:42:50 From Barry Bruce to Everyone:

Does Bhutan have a thriving local food system, or does it import a lot of food, commodity crops?
Is regenerative agriculture used locally?

10:44:27 From Mike Nickerson to Everyone:

Our ancestors lived mostly before the consumer era. To a large extent, today's problems result from an infatuation with material products. Do you think that the direction we need to move in includes a return to life based activity: learning, love and laughter, sport, music and other activity emerging from our beings?

Comment: Note that tomorrow's CACOR Zoom presentation will discuss the issue of human biosphere relationships and how to change the dialogue away from personal economic gain to the concept and definition of wellbeing. It will report on some of the results of a joint effort from several COR members and associates from different countries.

11:47:48 From John Hollins to Everyone:

This session will be on CACOR YouTube
