Art Hunter: (Q) I will phase this accruing to what he says. Geological time has shown we are on the 6th extinction. Much can regenerate in a few million years.

Art Hunter: What Extinction Are We In? The Sixth Mass Extinction - ScienceInsights

Raymond Leury: Q - There are discussions about setting aside 30% of the planet for non-human activities. Would that be enough?

Andrew Welch: Comment: The word "personhood" made me think of legal personhood. In terms of the capitalism/speciesism threads, we assign corporations more powerful rights in common with humans than we grant the other animals on our planet.

Dave Dougherty: Would you like to come on screen with this comment?

Dave Dougherty: From Jean D.: Are hourly paid workers in fact trapped as modern slaves to the 'elites' in our society?

Mike Nickerson: Might "More Fun, Less Stuff" provide a signpost pointing out of our dominating ways?

Dave Dougherty: We can take more questions!!
